As one of Harry Norman, Realtors top sales associates and a consistent multi-million dollar producer, Sarah Mock is the Realtor who can meet all your real estate needs. A sharp intellect, a firm command of industry practices and a thorough knowledge of Atlanta and it's surrounding areas, give Sarah the competitive edge that has made her a success.

A recent recipient of the Phoenix Award given by the Atlanta Board of Realtors, Sarah has been a top agent in the Buckhead office since 1989. Additionally, she is a Senior Marketing Consultant, a designation awarded to the top sales associates in the company based on exemplary achievements in real estate, including maintaining outstanding production levels and commanding a thorough knowledge of marketing, contract negotiations and finance.

Sarah's success in the real estate industry translates into success for you. She states, "My job is not just assisting with the buying and selling of houses. I help my clients move on to their next stage in life. My greatest ambition is to be the trusted advisor my clients turn to during a lifetime of real estate needs."

Sarah is supported in her efforts by 13 sales offices and 600 sales associates at Harry Norman, Realtors. Founded in 1930, Harry Norman, Realtors is one of Atlanta's oldest and largest residential real estate companies and the exclusive Atlanta affiliate of Sotheby's International Realty, the real estate arm of the famed auction house. Additionally, Harry Norman, Realtors is a member of Reliance Relocation Network, a superior relocation service to all companies and families relocating from or to the metropolitan Atlanta area.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, Sarah received her bachelor of arts in English Education. She and her husband Ray have three children, Joanna, 24, Martha, 21, and Andrew, 7.
